

DECEMBER 1

Well welcome, hello, fancy meeting you here!
I've come to your home to spread holiday cheer.
Every day this month, I'll share a surprise;
Some are gifts, some are games, some will help you be wise.
I can't wait to get started, and I've brought your first gift,
It's the world in your hands: hope it gives you a lift.

DECEMBER 2

Have I told you lately
That you are quite divine?
I'm in awe of how greatly
You sparkle and shine.
I heard all the nice things you said about me,
And it warmed my heart like the summer sun.
Thank you for being complimentary.
Let's come up with some praise to give someone!

DECEMBER 3

I went out for a walk in the chilly dawn
And I noticed some friends hanging out on the lawn,
There were several small birds, cuddled up for heat,
And they mentioned that they would like something to eat!
In the spirit of giving, I thought we could make
A festive bird feeder of which they'd partake.

DECEMBER 4

I woke up hungry, tummy growling so loud,
I worried that I might have woken you up!
And as I was finding a snack, I was wowed
By the good things in your home on which I could sup.
I was thinking we might want to share some of this;
That all of these treats might bring someone else bliss.
Perhaps we could bring someone something to eat,
So some other person could feel this replete.
