

DECEMBER 5

Holiday treats are delicious delights
But too many people go hungry some nights.
I wonder if we might spread prosperity
By donating something in solidarity?
Let's donate some food to some neighbors in need.
Then our own treats will taste sweeter, indeed.

DECEMBER 6

While I've been away I've had letters from friends
And each one has brightened my day.
I wonder if we could grab paper and pens
And send some good cheer on its way.

Let's make a holiday card for someone we won't get to see in person this holiday season!

DECEMBER 7

When I want to see the world anew
I read a little poem.
When I want to learn something fine and true
I read a little poem.
When I want to see through the eyes of another
I read a little poem.

Let's read a poem now to each other,
Let's read a little poem!

DECEMBER 8

I spent all night thinking over that poem
And the beauty it conveyed.
The way the happy skaters swayed
And the bluejay preened as they gazed at him.
Let's write a poem of our winter, here
And its beauty, fearless and gay.
Let's share the story of all our cheer
We could even rhyme along the way!