

DECEMBER 21

It's the solstice; it's here!
The darkest night of the year.
Let's light up the night to spread some good cheer.

Work together to create a light display to cheer your neighbors.

DECEMBER 22

How are you doing today, my friend?
Let's talk about feelings; we might start a trend.

What is something you find funny or interesting?
What are you most looking forward to today?

Is there anything you're dreading?

What is your favorite thing about the holidays?

DECEMBER 23

Let's read a favorite book together. Then, let's put on a play. Can we become the characters from the book?

Which part of this story made you smile the most? Why?

Was there a problem in this story that the characters needed to solve?
How did they do so? Would you have done the same?

DECEMBER 24

When my grandmother wanted to show me she cared
She fixed me a plate of my favorite food.
For me, those treats that she kindly prepared
Always put me in a wonderful mood.

Tonight, let's fix a plate for somebody kind.
Let's go to the kitchen and see what we find!
